10 REASONS TO STUDY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF GRANADA

1	A HIGH-RANKING UNIVERSITY Recognised for its quality in the fields of teaching, research, culture and services, the UGR is among the top universities in Spain according to international evaluation rankings.
2	A TRULY INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE The UGR is a welcoming cosmopolitan university: around 10% of our students are international. The UGR is also the most popular study destination among European exchange students (Erasmus+). Moreover, thanks to our 800+ exchange agreements with universities across the globe, we provide excellent international mobility opportunities.
3	A WIDE RANGE OF PROGRAMMES AND DEGREES The UGR offers high-quality academic programmes with a clear international vocation, including over 90 undergraduate degrees, 160 official master's degrees (19 of which are international double degrees) and 28 doctoral programmes. We also run short courses, virtual courses, lifelong learning courses, and summer schools.
4	LANGUAGE LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES Students can learn Spanish and other languages alongside the local students and the 10,000 international students who enrol each year in courses offered by the UGR's Modern Languages Centre (CLM), Confucius Institute (Chinese) and the Centre of Slavic Cultures.
5	TOP FACILITIES AND SERVICES The UGR provides top-quality services that cover all aspects of university life (Wi-Fi, accommodation, libraries, canteens, cultural activities, care for people with special needs, sports, etc.).

6	AN IDEAL UNIVERSITY CITY The UGR merges with the city, its schools and campuses distributed throughout Granada, giving the city a lively student atmosphere (56,000 students among an urban population of 230,000). The city of Granada, is safe and modern. It has a privileged geography, located halfway between the sea and the mountains: 40 minutes from the Mediterranean coast with its tropical climate and 30 minutes from the Sierra Nevada ski resort.
7	WORLD-CLASS RESEARCH The UGR is internationally renowned for its excellence in diverse research fields, including Computer Engineering and Telecommunications, Health Sciences, Cultural Heritage, Linguistics, Psychology and Sports Sciences, among others. Our 492 research groups encompass all areas of scientific knowledge, collaborating closely with leading national and international researchers, carrying out cutting-edge research.
8	AN INTERCONTINENTAL UNIVERSITY Its presence extends beyond the European continent, with campuses in Ceuta and Melilla located in North Africa, creating an intercontinental institution.
9	A CITY RICH IN CULTURE AND HISTORY Its fame as a historical, cultural, monumental and university city, together with its charm and numerous cultural and recreational activities, make it a great city to study in and a magnificent tourist destination. The cultural offer that the city of Granada has to offer is enormous: flamenco festivals, jazz, tango, theatre, magic, music, dance, comics, cinema, poetry, etcetera. Spanish gastronomy is internationally renowned for its quality and variety and Granada itself is known for its tapas.
10	COMMITMENT TO SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AND COOPERATION We are a University committed to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. As a student, you will be able to take part in both local and international volunteering activities, in the field of development cooperation and the training of communities in need. You will be able to develop your studies in an atmosphere of diversity, equality and tolerance.

COST OF LIVING IN GRANADA

The city of Granada is considered to be one of the cheapest places in Spain and Europe to live, as a student. Obviously, the cost of living for each student depends on their lifestyle, but it tends to vary between €700-€800 per month.

For guidance purposes, we have calculated the average cost of living in Granada in the most basic aspects:

- Accommodation in a shared flat (water and energy expenses excluded) varies roughly between €250-€300 per month.
- The daily set menu at the university canteens costs €3.50. The takeaway menu costs €6.
- A single city-bus ticket costs €1.40. If you obtain a bus card, the price is €0.87 per trip and with the University bus pass the cost is €0.61 per trip. A monthly pass costs about €41. (Please note that at this moment there is a reduction of 50% in all city-bus fares)

At this website you can watch a couple of videos about Granada campuses and districts and different options of accommodation: <http://internacional.ugr.es/en/students/ugr-services/acommodation>

HEALTH INSURANCE

HEALTH INSURANCE AND ASSISTANCE: What should I do if I fall sick?

According to the UGR International Mobility Regulations, Incoming students are obliged to have health and travel insurance for the duration of their study period.

Non-urgent medical care:

To receive healthcare students must first register with the public health centre (centro de salud) nearest to their home address in Granada. Medical appointments can be requested online or by phone. The waiting time to get an appointment may vary.

You can find a directory with a list of all health centres in Granada on the website of the Regional Government of Andalusia at:

<https://www.sspa.juntadeandalucia.es/servicioandaluzdesalud/el-sas/servicios-y-centros/informacion-por-centros>

Public Healthcare System:

- For more information please consult the Spanish Social Security website: <https://www.seg-social.es/wps/portal/wss/internet/InformacionUtil/32078/> Important: You must always present your ID card or passport.

Private Health System:

In order to visit your doctor, you must first call the number that appears on your insurance policy. During the call you will be asked for your identification number and your policy details. The insurance company will indicate the medical clinics where you can receive medical care in Granada.

In general, there are two hospitals or clinics in Granada that have an agreement with private insurance companies:

- Hospital Vithas La Salud: Avda. Santa María de la Alhambra, 6. 18008 Granada. Tel.: +34 958 80 88 80
- Clínica de la Inmaculada: C/ Doctor Alejandro Otero, 8 18004 Granada. Tel.: +34 958 25 38 00 and +34 958 18 77 00

Urgent medical care

In line with the regulations of the National Health System, urgent medical attention is guaranteed 24/7, 365 days a year to everyone at any hospital. In the event that you should require an ambulance, you must call the Emergency Phone Number in Spain (and all EU countries): 112.

RESIDENCE IN SPAIN

PROCEDURES

Citizens from the EU, Switzerland and the European Economic Area

A valid passport or national ID card is required for entry into Spain. If you will reside in Spain for more than three months, you must register at the Central Register of Foreigner Nationals in person at the Immigration Office in Granada. You must submit a valid passport or national ID card, a copy of your health insurance card (or the insurance you have purchased) and the official UGR Erasmus student credential in order to apply. You are obliged by law to complete this registration process as soon as possible, within the first three months following your arrival.

Citizens from Non-EU countries

- Students studying at a university of an EU country (Belgium, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Denmark, Germany, Estonia, Ireland, Greece, Spain, France, Croatia, Italy, Cyprus, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxemburg, Hungary, Malta, The Netherlands, Austria, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Slovenia, Slovakia, Finland and Sweden). If the student has a foreigner's identity card, issued by the EU country where the student is studying, which is valid for the whole period of the mobility studies at the University of Granada, then the student should not apply for a student visa to come to Spain. The University of Granada will notify the Immigration Office in Granada of the student's arrival.
- If the student is studying at a university of a Non-EU country: the student must apply for the corresponding study visa at the Spanish consulate nearest to their home. You can find the relevant information at the following link: <https://www.inclusion.gob.es/en/web/migraciones/w/estancia-por-estudios>

Immigration Office (Granada):

C/ San Agapito nº 2, 18071 Granada (Spain)

Tlf.: (+34) 958 90 94 08. Opening hours: from Monday to Thursday from 9:00 to 17:30 and Fridays from 9:00 to 14:00.
