

DOCTORAL SCHOOL OF LAW

Doctoral programme of Law

Admission requirements

Applicants to the Doctoral School of Law must have a university degree (MA) in law and an intermediate state-accredited language exam in one of the following languages: English, German, Russian, French, Spanish, Italian (or knowledge of one of these languages equivalent to an intermediate state-accredited language exam). In case of university degree acquired abroad the decision of the Hungarian authorities about the equivalency with a university MA degree in law may be required, too.

Candidates can apply before their final examination in case they would pass it at least until 3 July, 2025.

Applicants to the individual (correspondence) training must have a university degree (MA) acquired at least three years before the application deadline. Besides fulfilling the general conditions they must take research activity as part of their work and have a considerable number of publications.

Foreign students can apply to the individual (correspondence) training, too. They must have a university degree (MA) in law.

Information of apply and the attached documents are available:

https://www.elte.hu/phd_tajekoztatok

More information:

Andrea Bencze administrator

H-1053 Budapest, Kecskeméti u. 10-12, 1st floor, room 103.

Tel: +36-1-483-8000/4732

E-mail: phdjur@ajk.elte.hu

Homepage: <http://www.ajk.elte.hu/doktoriiskola/ajk>

Deadline for the application: 14th of March 2025 – 15th of May 2025

Date of the entrance examination: the second half of June 2025

Fees:

Application fee (covers the administration costs of the application procedure, not refundable): 9000 HUF.

Tuition fee: 150.000 HUF per semester

Students must have a passport valid for at least a year from the beginning of the academic year and visa if required.

Doctoral programme of Criminology (in Hungarian)

Admission requirements

Applicants to the Doctoral School of Law must have an university degree (MA) in criminology or in law and an intermediate state-accredited language exam in one of the following languages: English, German, Russian, French, Spanish, Italian (or knowledge of one of these languages equivalent to an intermediate state-accredited language exam). In case of university degree acquired abroad the decision of the Hungarian authorities about the equivalency with a university MA degree in criminology or in law may be required, too.

Candidates can apply before their final examination in case they would pass it at least until 3 July, 2025.

Applicants to the individual (correspondence) training must have a university degree (MA) acquired at least three years before the application deadline. Besides fulfilling the general conditions they must take research activity as part of their work and have a considerable number of publications.

Foreign students can apply to the individual (correspondence) training, too. They must have a university degree (MA) in criminology or in law.

Information of apply and the attached documents are available:

https://www.elte.hu/phd_tajekoztatok

More information:

Andrea Bencze administrator

H-1053 Budapest, Kecskeméti u. 10-12, 1st floor, room 103.

Tel: +36-1-483-8000/4732

E-mail: phdjur@ajk.elte.hu

Homepage: <http://www.ajk.elte.hu/doktoriiskola/ajk>

Deadline for the application: 14 March 2025 – 15 May 2025

Date of the entrance examination: the second half of June 2025

Fees:

Application fee (covers the administration costs of the application procedure, not refundable): 9000 HUF.

Tuition fee: 150.000 HUF per semester

Students must have a passport valid for at least a year from the beginning of the academic year and visa if required.

For further information regarding applications to PhD programmes in foreign languages at ELTE, please visit our website: <https://www.elte.hu/en/find-degree-program>