

Criminology, Crime and Criminal Justice

Course Coordinator: Dr. Éva Inzelt, Department of Criminology
e-mail: inzelteva@ajk.elte.hu

Course description

The aim of the course is partly to provide an introduction to criminology, partly to deal with topical issues in the fields of criminological theories, crime and reactions to crime.

The lectures cover the features of a given topic in Hungary.

Course schedule

1. Introduction to Criminology
2. Crime Online Punishing the Poor – Consequences of Workfare Policies in Hungary
3. Hate Crimes in Hungary
4. Life Imprisonment without Parole in Hungary and the Case Law of the ECtHR
5. Imprisonment and Prison Life in Hungary
6. White-collar and Corporate Crime in Hungary Child-friendly Justice in Hungary
7. The Background of Juvenile Prostitution
8. Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the Involvement of Children in Armed Conflict
9. Transnational Organized Crime and Hungary
10. Critical Criminology and Environmental Harm: Perspectives in Green Criminology

Assessment

A written piece of at least 15,000 characters on academic level on a topic of the course of the Student's choice and approved by the respective Lecturer and the Course Coordinator.

Materials

The slides of the lectures and documents uploaded during the course.