

Introcuccion to European Civil Procedure

Lecturer: Prof. Dr. Thomas Rauscher (Universität Leipzig),

Prof. Dr. István Varga (Head of Department of Civil Procedure, ELTE)

vargai@ajk.elte.hu

This block seminar gives an overview on Regulation (EU) No 1215/2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil an commercial matters („Brussel la-Regulation”):

1. Legal nature and scope of application of Brussels la-Regulation.
2. Jurisdiction under Brussels la-Regulation
 - General Jurisdiction
 - Special Jurisdictions (Place of performance, tort etc.)
 - Jurisdiction agreements
 - Exclusive jurisdictin (Immovable property, teancies etc.)
 - Jurisdiction in consumer contract cases
 - Jurisdiction in insurance cases
 - Jurisdiction concerning individual contracts of employment
3. Litispendency in different Member States
4. Recognition of judgments
5. Enforcement of judgments

Students should bring a copy of Brussels la-Regulation which can be downloaded from eur-lex-europa.eu. Versions in all official languages of the EU are avilable, so it might be advisable to have a copy in your mother tongue with you in order to easier translate legal phrases.

Assessment

Written exam