

Title	The cooperation between the European Court of Justice and national courts in preliminary ruling proceedings
Lecturer:	Dr. Nóra CSEKE Lawyer, Court of Justice of the European Union Nora.Cseke@curia.europa.eu
Brief description	The course provides an overview of different aspects of the preliminary ruling proceedings and of the interaction between the Court of Justice and national courts in that regard.
Schedule	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. History, nature and development of the preliminary ruling proceedings</li><li>2. Criteria for determining which bodies may refer preliminary questions</li><li>3. What questions can be referred for preliminary ruling?</li><li>4. Preliminary ruling proceedings before the referring court</li><li>5. Possibility or obligation of the national court to refer questions</li><li>6. Preliminary ruling proceedings before the Court of Justice</li><li>7. The advocate general in the preliminary ruling proceedings</li><li>8. Judgments and orders</li><li>9. The preliminary ruling and its effects</li><li>10. Expedited and urgent preliminary ruling proceedings</li><li>11. Consequences of a national court disregarding its obligation to make a reference, case solving</li><li>12. Written exam</li></ol>
Materials/Recommended readings	Case law, slides and other materials presented and discussed, articles recommended during the courses.

Assessment/Exam	Written exam The active participation in class discussions will be taken into account.
------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------