Overview

After a basic introduction to the history, principles and sources of international sales law, the course will focus on the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (Vienna, 1980) (CISG) and discuss various issues relating to international sales transactions, dispute resolution and arbitration. The course will focus on the practical aspects. The course materials include mandatory readings and case law materials.

The outline of the issues to be covered during the classes is the following:

1. Introduction to International Sales Law
2. Legal Sources of International Sales Law
3. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (Vienna, 1980) (CISG)
4. Dispute resolution, arbitration

Working method

Students are expected to read the materials in advance and discuss them in class. The materials for each class are available on the course Moodle site.

Assessment
