

Brno-Budapest Legal Theory Workshop

8 May 2026

Venue: Eötvös Loránd University Faculty of Law

(Budapest, Egyetem tér 1-3. room 401)

9.00-9.30 Martin Hapla-Balázs Fekete: Opening and introduction

9.30-11.00 Panel One

Chair: Martin Hapla

Miklós Márton: One-term physicalism

Tomáš Sobek: Is legal thinking paradoxical? And should it be?

Áron Fábián: A grounded normative theory of the Hungarian transition and democratic backsliding

Linda Tvrdíková: The Role of Judiciary from the Perspective of John Searle's Social Ontology

11.00-11.30 Comfort Break

11.30-13.00 Panel Two

Chair: Balázs Fekete

Fruzsina Tóth: Rule of law in everyday life

John Gealfow: Legal awareness, consciousness and literacy: How to measure the knowledge of the law and an ability to act in a correct way in accordance with it?

Valéria Kiss: Advancing empirical legal research: methodological innovations and collaborative opportunities